Thank you for your enquiry about a subscription to Independent Retail News, the UK's leading magazine for local stores.

Published every two weeks, it is read by nearly 45,000 independent retail grocery managers in the UK and provides a forum for the industry's retailers to trade ideas, solve problems and share information.

The £24bn convenience sector is the fastest growing sector of the £119bn UK grocery market, according to grocery think-tank IGD. Convenience is dominated by independent retailers and symbol and forecourt stores which account for 78% of sales. So knowing what the independents are doing has never been more important.

Independent Retail News is your passport to understanding this sector. It offers outsiders a unique insight into the ambitions of the independent sector within the context of the overall grocery market.

So if you have a vested interest in improving your share of the grocery market, and you want to see at a glance the latest initiatives in the independent sector, then a subscription to Independent Retail News will prove invaluable.

Kind regards

John Kirwan
Editor, Independent Retail News
